APICS Fun

Message from the Board of Directors

Greetings,

As the days get shorter - not really - still 24 hours, but daylight is waning, we as individuals need to plan on how we can participate in our APICS professional development programs beginning in September. We offer you great educational opportunities with our PDMs and tours as well as an excellent way to enhance your career and make you stand out to current and potential employers thru our CPIM review classes.

Please note that if you sign up for our CPIM review classes prior to September 1st, the price is significantly less - $300 for members and $375 non-members. After that date the pricing changes to $375 for members and $450 for non-members, so it definitely pays to register early. For those concerned about the price increase, it is important to know that other surrounding chapters charge significantly more for their CPIM review classes and our prices have been the same for quite some time. Our class offerings have helped many CPIM candidates obtain their CPIM Certification.

Please contact me either thru the website or by emailing me at brucegalthazor@drs.com to register or to request additional information. I look forward to seeing many of you at our upcoming PDM's and hearing from you when you register for our CPIM review classes.

Bruce Balthazor, C.P.M., CPIM
